GREECE 9 - 11 JUNE 2017

Each competitor has the right to participate in any number of events.

Each participant has to submit an entry fee of 15€ to the Organizing Committee. Furthermore, each competitor must have a doctor's certificate, certifying that he/she is fit and capable of competing and submit it along with a formal declaration, assuming full responsibility of the risks in competing in the competition and waiving and release the Organizing Committee from any kind of liability for accidents, which may cause death and/or injury.

The swimming competition will be held on the 9th and 10th of June. Preliminaries will be conducted on the first day and finals on the second.

During the preliminaries, swimmers of all age groups will compete in heats, making sure that similar age groups are placed in each heat. The eight fastest swimmers will be announced by age group.

In the finals, only the eight fastest swimmers of each age group are eligible for competing and their placement in the final heats will be according to their performance in the preliminaries.

Medals and diplomas will be awarded to the first three athletes of all individual events and relays. Diplomas will be awarded to all eight finalists of each event.
